

Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the Cornucopia,
a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in
Thanks & Prayer.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only
five kernels of corn per day because the
food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is
the celebration of the harvest.

The Peanuts represent seeds, the potential
of the bounteous harvest of the next season if they are planted & well-tended.

Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the Cornucopia,
a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in
Thanks & Prayer.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the
first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only
five kernels of corn per day because the
food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is
the celebration of the harvest.

The Peanuts represent seeds, the potential
of the bounteous harvest of the next season
if they are planted & well-tended.

Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the Cornucopia,
a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in
Thanks & Prayer.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the
first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only
five kernels of corn per day because the
food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is
the celebration of the harvest.

The Peanuts represent seeds, the potential
of the bounteous harvest of the next
season if they are planted & well-tended.

Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the Cornucopia,
a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in
Thanks & Prayer.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the
first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only
five kernels of corn per day because the
food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is
the celebration of the harvest.

The Peanuts represent seeds, the potential
of the bounteous harvest of the next
season if they are planted & well-tended.

Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the Cornucopia,
a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in
Thanks & Prayer.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the
first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only
five kernels of corn per day because the
food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is
the celebration of the harvest.

The Peanuts represent seeds, the potential
of the bounteous harvest of the next season
if they are planted & well-tended.

Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the Cornucopia,
a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in
Thanks & Prayer.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the
first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only
five kernels of corn per day because the
food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is
the celebration of the harvest.

The Peanuts represent seeds, the potential
of the bounteous harvest of the next season
if they are planted & well-tended.